

RICHARD I. KEGERREIS

ACDA 2016 Eastern Division Conference COLLEGIATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Richard Kegerreis (1928-2002) contributed enormously to ACDA through his service as editor of the Eastern Division Troubadour, as national coordinator of newsletter editors, and as editor of New York's state newsletter Choral Cues. To honor these contributions, as well as his life as a dedicated choral conductor and mentor, the Board of the Eastern Division in 2002 established the Richard I. Kegerreis ACDA Eastern Division Conference Collegiate Scholarships.

The goal of these scholarships is to support ACDA Conference participation and service by college and university students at the undergraduate and graduate levels. A maximum of ten (10) scholarships will be awarded for the Eastern Division Conference in Boston, MA, each in the amount of $400. Undergraduate winners will be responsible for serving at the registration desk for a total of an hour and a half, and graduate winners will be responsible for introducing one interest session. Kegerreis scholarship recipients are also eligible to apply for additional funding through the Student Volunteer program.

We encourage all college/university students to apply for the Kegerreis Collegiate Scholarships. A copy of the application form appears on the following page as well as on our website at <http://acdaeast.org>. Applications must be submitted no later than November 2, 2015. See application for details.

Recipients of the Kegerreis Collegiate Scholarships will be notified by mail and by e-mail before the early application deadline for the conference. The list of awardees will be announced in the monthly e-newsletter, ChoraLink. All scholarship recipients will be pre-registered for the conference, and registration fees of $185 will be deducted from the scholarship amount. Checks for the remaining balance of $215 will be available for collection at the registration desk of the Eastern Division Conference in Boston, MA, February 10-13, 2016.

Funding for the Richard I. Kegerreis Scholarship Fund comes from ACDA Eastern Division funds, supplemented by donations from anyone wishing to honor Richard Kegerreis. Donations are tax-deductible, and Mrs. Kegerreis will be informed of those donating to this fund as a memorial to her husband.
